USPA NEWS - ???? Exciting News for Music Fans! ????
Thanks to your votes, the award-winning singer-songwriter Dona Maria has been selected to perform at this year's festival! Join us on April 11, 2026, for a spectacular live performance as she brings her hit songs and empowering anthems to the stage. Don't miss this chance to see one of today's most celebrated artists in action!

The title itself is symbolic—words are power. In the song, Dona Maria transforms language into a force of strength, illustrating how speaking your truth can shape identity, confidence, and personal boundaries. Rather than allowing herself or others to be defined by outside opinions, judgment, or expectations, she emphasizes the importance of owning your voice and using it with clarity and purpose. Every lyric feels intentional, as if it is carefully placed to remind the listener that words are not just sounds or expressions, but tools that carry weight, influence, and meaning. Through her delivery, she highlights how words can either build or break, heal or harm, liberate or limit, depending on how they are used and received.

In this song, words are not portrayed as passive elements of communication but as active agents of change. Dona Maria brings attention to the idea that what we say to ourselves is just as powerful—if not more—than what others say to us. Internal dialogue becomes a central theme, suggesting that empowerment begins from within. When a person chooses to speak to themselves with confidence, self-respect, and belief, those words begin to shape reality.
